SUBSCRIPTION $2.50 — A YEAR

ANNUAL DRIVE FOR BOY SCOUT FUNDS STARTS

The annual drive for boy scout funds in the various towns of the Northwest district will begin at once. The aim is to have it completed by June first. This was the action taken at the last meeting of the executive board. There was a good representation of men from every town, with the exception of Palatine. Questions relating to camping and finance were discussed freely.

DesPlaines will start its drive for funds by a big parade Saturday night. The Park Ridge Boy Scout band will lead the parade, which will be preceded by several Paul Revere's going around the city announcing the drive by bugle and megaphone.

Rapid Work in Arlington Heights
The board of directors of the Arlington Heights council met Tuesday evening and laid plans for the drive in Arlington Heights. Committees have been appointed to appear before each society and organization in the village. In this way the individual members of these societies will learn of the need. For the purpose of giving the individual a chance to contribute to this fund the two local banks have consented to accept subscriptions. The quota for Arlington Heights is $500. It must be raised prior to June 1. A few organizations of this village spent early a year in raising the quota for last year. The purpose of the coming campaign is to make it more general an complete it in two weeks time. Donations of 5c up will be accepted but as a matter of convenience a special stock certificate has been prepared for those organizations and business places who desire to give in multiples of $5.00. The Herald will keep the public informed as regards the progress that is made.

A new feature of the drive this year is the use of the Stock Certificate in Boyhood Preferred can be purchased at $5.00 per share and dividends will be paid in the form of a Semi-yearly report of the activities of the councils. Everybody is urged to contribute to this worthy cause and whether you are able to give only a dollar or even less, it will be fine, but we want everyone to participate in the work as it is a community responsibility.

Like Mr. Schroeder of Barrington so ably put it, "We all can make investments in a home or car or other material things, and the minute we do, depreciation starts reducing their investment value, but an investment in Boyhood Preferred is an investment in the future of the nation, and it is a community responsibility, and it is a community responsibility."

Accomplishments of N. W. Suburban Council
Geo. F. Landane, scout executive of the N. W. Suburban council has made the following report of the accomplishments from Aug. 1, 1926, to May 1, 1927.

Increased number of scouts from 145 registered in good standing to 350, without making a drive for more members. This increase came about in building a constructive program. Our need has been and is men to act as scoutmasters to lead the boys.

Had 9 commissioned officers. Have now 24.

Had less than 25 assigned volunteer men. Have now over 100 assigned volunteer men.

We now have definite council organization and each man understands his duties.

We had 6 troops registered in good standing.

We now have 11 troops registered in good standing.

We have made a complete survey of the district, to determine how many boys can be served in each community, etc., and a complete district map is being prepared to show all details.

Have made a survey of camps in Michigan and Wisconsin, and have selected and secured privilege of going into the Indian Mound reservation, one of the best camps in the U. S., at less cost than the average camp.

Have held four courts of honor and awarded 110 tenderfoot pins, 100 second class pins, 21 first class pins, 112 merit badges, 8 star badges and 1 life, all paid for by council fund.

Have instituted a court of honor in each community and in this way eliminating trips of the scouts to other courts.

Have placed in all libraries throughout the district good books that boys especially like and also complete sets of merit badge pamphlets, in order that the scouts might proceed intelligently in their merit badge work.

Have started and placed most of the troops on business like basis, thus lessening the burden of every individual and at the same time increasing the efficiency.

Set up definite sets of rules, etc.,

Frederick Meier, Sr., Elk Grove Pioneer Dies Very Suddenly

Mr. Frederick Meier, Sr., a resident of this vicinity all of his life died suddenly at his home in Arlington Heights Sunday, May 8th. Mr. Meier had not complained of his health. He was taken ill very suddenly about noon, while outdoors. He was taken into the house and an hour later had passed away.

The funeral was held Wednesday, May 11 at St. Peter's Ev. Lutheran church, services in both English and German. Interment was in St. Peter's cemetery. Rev. Noack and Rev. Fricke both officiated. The church was filled with old friends and acquaintances of the deceased.

Mr. Meier passed away at the age of 65 years, 8 months, 28 days. He leaves two brothers, Geo. Meier, of Mt. Prospect and William, of Arlington Heights, 3 sisters, Mrs. L. C. Busse, of Mt. Prospect; Mrs. John Gieseke, Roselle; Mrs. Herman Becker, of Roselle; three daughters, Mrs. John Kretz of Palatine; Mrs. Louis Kirchhoff, of Mt. Prospect, Mrs. Fred Oldenburg of Elmhurst (a fourth daughter, Mrs. Paul Holste of Mt. Prospect died 3 years ago) two sons, Fred and W. E. of Arlington Heights; and 16 grandchildren.

Deceased was born in Elk Grove Aug. 10, 1861. He was baptized and confirmed March 21, 1875 in the Elk Grove church, of which he was a trustee and elder until he left the farm to move to Arlington Heights. April 9, 1885 he was united in marriage with Miss Augusta Gieseke who passed away seven years ago.

Troop Fifty-five Wins Honors for Glenview

Someone has said that genius is 98 per cent perspiration and only 2 per cent inspiration. Well, we know that hard work did the business. For over two weeks we had been planning and working to get ready for the Council Court of Honor, which was held at the new Trier high school last Friday evening, May 6. It was to be the great social event of the year for the 35 troops of this council. We knew about the big inspection contests for the troops. The boys were timed and groomed and trained; the cooperation was asked in letters, and in person. The boys were absolutely clean and neat. They were inspected by their parents before they left home, again at the church before they left town, again outside the school before they entered and when the great event took place, and Glenview scouts took the floor, there was only one opinion in that whole auditorium as to the result. The baby troop of the council won hands down, as having the greatest uniformity of appearance and the greatest neatness. The Glenview people who went with the troop were satisfied with the trip, as well as were the boys. There was a fine address or two, a good bugle and drum corps from some Chicago troop, and the awarding of honors and promotions. 3 of our boys became second class scouts: Edward Wallbaum, Walton Searle and Billy Carper. Ray Daniels received four merit badges and Mr. Stanton two.

We wish to thank the parents for helping the boys win that inspection and also those who used their cars for transportation.

Glenview is on the map as far as scouting is concerned, and we have a big job ahead keeping her there.

Arlington Heights Team Is Again an Easy Victor

Arlington Heights base ball team was again an easy winner Sunday when they defeated Long Grove 13 to 2. The big game of the season will be Sunday when their old rivals, the Palatine team, will come to Arlington Heights. Oh! Boy! It will be some game.

and in this way placed scouting on a higher standard.

The average cost per boy in Councils throughout the U. S. is between $11.00 and $15.00, and to date our cost per boy is about $7.00 and our cost per boy will decrease by the increase in numbers.

Securing of 35 large road signs, advertising the town, and scout movement and a live business organization.

Objectives for Next Year
Increase number of troops from 11 to at least 15 and if possible 20.

Increase the number of scouts to at least 500.

Securing troop leaders of character and vision, training, encouraging and assisting them.

Every scout in camp for at least 7 days.

Increase and continued service to community agencies.

At least 150 subscribers to Boy's Life magazine.

Provide a leadership training program for the troop leaders.

Bring the advancement of our scout membership to the following standard:

PAVEMENT OF ALGONQUIN ROAD AWAITS ACTION

Do the people residing along Algonquin road want it to be paved? The county commissioners are willing to do their part, but the pro-Park Ridge-DesPlaines and rural project, which is in reality a Chicago project requires concerted action on the part of all of the districts to be benefited, if any of that paving is to become a reality. Without co-operative action, similar to that which gave this part of the county, the Northwest highway, Algonquin road may go unpaved for a long time to come. Originally Algonquin road continued from Algonquin to Chicago, but with the building of the railroad, sections of the highway were vacated and the road diverted into DesPlaines. At that time it was thought more important that the road end at DesPlaines than that it should go on to Chicago. Contemplated plans call for the opening of connected thoroughfares, which would make it a direct route to Wacker drive in the loop.

The following story appearing in the Daily News covers the situation. "State highway commissioners are considering building a new motor route into the northwest section of the county to relieve the congestion on the existing lanes, it was learned today. The construction of the route, however, is said to be dependent upon the opening and widening of Avondale avenue, because it is planned to connect the proposed artery with Avondale to give easy access into and out of the loop.

The proposal was presented to the highway commissioners at a recent meeting by County Commissioner William Busse, who pointed out that the $100,000,000 state road bond issue calls for a state highway from Algonquin to Chicago by way of DesPlaines. The best route for such a highway, said Mr. Busse would be Algonquin road, southeast to Oakton, then into Talcott road, turning in a southeasterly direction to Ryan road, east over that avenue into Avondale, and then southeast again to Wacker drive.

View Plan Favorably
The commissioners are said to have viewed the plan favorably, although they have not yet taken any action upon it. Algonquin road was used as a state route some 100 years ago. It runs into Algonquin, connecting with other state routes on the way.

The highway would have a right of way of 100 feet, the pavement itself, however, being but twenty feet wide unless property owners should be willing to pay for the cost of making it wider. This, it is said, many of the property owners in Park Ridge are ready to do, declaring themselves willing to be assessed so that a forty foot pavement can be constructed.

Mr. Busse pointed out that the artery could be built at a reasonable cost as few if any openings would have to be provided. Much of the route is all ready for paving, the underground improvements being in.

Northwest Side Backs Proposal
Northwest side residents are reported to be back of the proposal almost 100 per cent. They have struggled along for years without adequate automobile highways and particularly without adequate motor connection with the loop. This route, if constructed by the state, would place additional pressure upon the city to hurry the work of opening and widening Avondale avenue, they believe, giving them at least one direct boulevard into the loop.

A campaign to boost the Avondale avenue project has been started by the Amalgamated Northwest Improvement Association, Inc. Posters have been put up urging that the highway be constructed by a bond issue.

Sunshine, Moonshine And Other "Fines"

While the sun shines on Bunker Hill, just south of Bensenville, the same as it does any place, and while Moonshine finds consumers there, the sunshine is welcomed by everyone, but the moonshine don't make as good an impression as the sunshine. Monday after having a few drinks too much (how ever much too much is) a neighborhood quarrel took place on said Bunker Hill and Judge Frye was called upon to hold court that evening to decide just how much damage had been done in that neighborhood by moonshine that makes its unwelcome appearance in the day time. The defendant, feeling that if guilty he just as soon spend a little more money asked for a jury trial which was granted and a jury soon impaneled. After hearing the testimony and argument the jury retired to discuss the evidence and cuss the circumstances that brought about the quarrel and eventually the bringing into court neighbors who should live to assist one another instead of punishing each other. It took the jury about 15 minutes to come to an agreement and after considering all the circumstances which brought about the quarrel found the defendant guilty as charged and recommended a low fine be imposed which Judge Frye read. To make the case still more shiny the electric lights were put out of commission and the fore part of the trial was conducted by the light of several large electric lanterns which were obtained from the fire department.

STORM TALES CONTINUE TO ARRIVE HERE

Heavy Storm Loss at Franklin Park

The storm which occurred Tuesday in Franklin Park and surrounding territory did considerable damage. Many local reports state that windows were smashed or blown in, trees uprooted, split and blown over, barns collapsed, telephone and light wires torn down, roofs damaged etc. We have not heard of any one being injured in our town and are truly thankful for that.

The big potato on an I. H. B. Ry. storage house at Franklin Park is a bad wreck. The roof was blown off a part of the walls caved in.

The Mid-West Cement sewer tile factory suffered heavy loss from the wind. Part of the roof is off and walls damaged.

Damage at Niles Center

Niles Center got Hail Columbia along with the other towns hereabout and of course green houses got the worst of it. They are hauling broken glass out by wheel barrows full. Stielow Bros. have an estimated damage of about $7,000 to $10,000. Wittbold plant in Edgebrook in almost a complete wreck. Schenings shop roof was damaged about $200 and the same amount will be needed to repair the tile roof on Kellen's house next door. Kutz Plumbing Shop and Center Grocery each had a big plate glass front demolished. A small cupola on Catholic church was struck by lightning. Slight damage was done to windows of the three churches. The old timers knew how to build shutters on windows and cedar shingle roofs. No French windows and tile roofs a la California.

Mr. Ferdinand Kutz, a former resident of Niles Center, who has a cottage at Loon Lake, reports that some of the cottages were swept away entirely by the storm Monday afternoon.

Mr. W. J. Galitz made a hurried trip to McHenry after having had a report that part of his building had been blown into a corn patch by the terrific wind.

Herbert Baumann's greenhouses were badly damaged by the hail stones. Other green houses in this vicinity were also damaged.

The Storm in Morton Grove

Monday's storm which swept Niles township, did not spare Morton Grove. Wind became prevalent followed by a slight electric storm, which quickly changed into a small hurricane accompanied by a terrific downpour of huge hail stones.

The hail storm lasted nearly a quarter of an hour, many windows were broken on the west side of buildings.

None of the hail stones appeared to be smaller than a half inch in diameter, while many measured one and three-fourths inches across by actual measurement some were two and one-half inches.

But the most noteworthy feature of the storm was the shapes of the hail stones. During the first fall, they were about the size and shape of moth balls; later, stones from one to one and a half inches across fell, which had circular markings which made them resemble a huge moonstone carved into the shape of the human eye-ball the iris and pupil being plainly indicated. The largest of the stones many of them presented the shape of a rosette, more or less perfectly formed.

Some of our residents remember having seen stones of even larger size fall in former years, but said they had never before seen stones of such peculiar shape and appearance.

A villager who was in Evanston during the storm reported that the

DIVISION THREE FESTIVAL TO BE AT GLENVIEW

Big Storm at Bensenville

At 12:45 p. m. Monday citizens of our village noticed a heavy cloud forming in the southwest. It continued to come nearer and nearer and at 1:45 p. m. the heavens opened up and water came down by tons. At 2 p. m. the storm turned into hail and hail stones the size of golf balls came pelting down driving every living creature to shelter. Several thousand windows were broken. The green house and Milwaukee's round house were hit the hardest on account of having so much glass exposed. Several homes where windows were broken were found, after the storm to have water standing on the floors.

After the storm passed the sky cleared off and it was thought that we had had a plenty for one day but again about 6 p. m. another wind and rain storm hit the village and several people who were hurrying homeward were nearly blown off their feet into puddles of water that stood along the sidewalks in every low spot. The high wind continued until sun down when it died down. All around it was the worst storm this section ever witnessed.

Mrs. Lottie Shaw, district sales manager of the Wyatt Way company, for this district had a narrow escape Monday when the wind storm struck at 72nd street. Mrs. Shaw, who was on her way home after a long day's drive, in line with her work had reached 72nd street when the storm broke. She turned her auto into the curb and stopped when the wind threatened to blow her into the air and landed it so close to the running board of her car that one could not put a hand between the two cars. Fear seized her as she saw the coupe picked off the ground and hurled towards her car. On her arrival home she stated that the wind had come up so sudden and so strong that it tore all the awnings from the store buildings and scattered fruit for blocks down the street.

Storm at Northbrook

The terrific storm last Monday afternoon did several thousand dollars damage when telephone poles, roof, small houses, trees and everything else in its path flew and was broken beyond repair.

Six sections of a heavy tile roof of the Ill. Brick Co., which weighs over 200 lbs. at a section was blown off its foundation, and badly damaged two new automobiles owned by N. Wagner and L. Sticksen who are working at the yard. A large chimney was blown over on the Batek greenhouses, smashing a great many panes of glass and severely injuring a man who was working there.

A large piece of heavy tin weighing about 60 lbs. was blown across Mr. R. Lauer's yard almost striking him so is the report.

A small garage, on Walter Ave. owned by Mr. C. Newman was blown across the fence, landing on the next door neighbor's chicken coop.

After all we all are thankful it was not worse.

Barrington Firm To Manufacture 38 Tons Of Ice Every Day

The suburban Ice Manufacturing Co., has been organized at Barrington for the purpose of supplying ice in wholesale lots to local ice men. The former Bowman dairy plant building is being used. A feature of the ice making is the dividing of the ice into 25 pound segments, which saves the ice man from sawing the product and assures the housewife of a full measure, if it has not melted too much.

Band Concert At Honeymoon Home

The Northwest Band of Arlington Heights, "the band that keeps busy" and the pride of the village will furnish the music at the Cook County Herald's Honeymoon Home exhibition Sunday afternoon. Professor H. C. Landeck will be in charge and promises a rare treat. This will be the first outside job of the band for this season.

Several valuable prizes will be given away at the home. Last Sunday more than 300 people inspected the home. This Sunday there should be a great many more because we are promised fair weather and the affair is to be bigger and better.

Every man, woman and child that possibly can should visit the Honeymoon Home. It is a wonderful instruction in planning, building and the arranging of a home. Watch this home as it is being built. Look at the construction, materials used, style, all of which is the very latest in modern design. Ask questions. We have experts on hand to answer all queries.

This exhibition is one of the most complete of its kind ever held in this section.

Don't fail to be there Sunday.

J. A. Schminke Makes Annual Report Village Affairs of Wheeling

This issue contains the annual report of J. A. Schminke, treasurer of the village of Wheeling. It covers every financial transaction of the village the past year. With the installation of the water works system the past year and the issue of bonds covering that expenditure, the gross receipts and expenditures are over $22,000. This covers the corporate fund and does not include any village taxes. The license fees for the year total $4,776.22.

We have always known that Wheeling is an unusual village, but we never knew before that it had such an unusual treasurer. Mr. Schminke received for his work as treasurer last year exactly $30. The fee authorized by law would have been in the neighborhood of $400. Mr. Schminke is an unusual treasurer in another way. He goes to it that the village receives interest upon its funds that are on deposit in the Wheeling bank. That interest last year amounted to $150.00. He is unusual in a third matter. He keeps a separate road and bridge fund. It is customary for the majority of villages to put into their corporate fund all road and bridge tax money and to expend it for corporate purposes of whatever nature they desire. The road and bridge tax is levied by the township. A percentage of that paid by people residing in the village is paid into the village treasury for use upon the roads of the village. In other villages than Wheeling only a small amount of that road and bridge money is used for that purpose.

Stunt Flyer Loses Arm in Accident

Clifford Palm, 22 years, 421 Elgin Ave., Forest Park, lost his arm about 3:30 Sunday afternoon, when he jumped from an aeroplane at the Heath Aeroplane field at DesPlaines. Owing to the strong wind and the turning of the aeroplane as he jumped, the propeller of the plane came into contact with Palm's right arm, nearly severing it. Only a few inches of skin held it on. The young man landed safely and the county police rushed him to the Wheeling hospital, where Dr. Larson dressed the wound. The doctor is doing everything possible to save the arm, but there is every indication that it will have to be taken off. The boy is unmarried, but has a mother in Wisconsin. He asked that she be not notified of the accident until after Mother's Day.

NILES TWP. LANDMARK DESTROYED

The Welcome Inn, historical old landmark at the corner of Milwaukee Avenue and Dempster Street was completely destroyed by fire Monday evening, May 9, thus providing an arousing climax to a day which had already had more than its share of excitement through terrific storms of hail, rain and wind.

The fire, thought to have been caused by crossed wires, started near the stairway on the south side of the building and was first discovered by passersby who rushed in and notified the occupants of the inn who were unaware of their danger. Fire calls were turned in at once and efforts made to check the fire or at least endeavor to get it under control. Aided by the strong wind, the fire rapidly tore through the walls of the framework structure and soon gained the roof, and it was then that attention was centered upon saving the goods and furnishings. While the raging flames made a veritable oven of the building, the men worked like demons and succeeded in saving practically everything on the main floor, but were unable to remove the best furniture which was upstairs. By the time the fire departments arrived they were handicapped by the lack of water and could do little more than to be ready to protect the gas and oil station on the opposite corner which was imperilled by flying sparks and flames. The conflagration spread to the barn and sheds at the rear of the house while an estimated crowd of 1500 stood helplessly by and watched the place once known as "Beto's Corner" burn to the ground. Tony Senekowich, the proprietor, had just had the place redecorated and his loss is very heavy.

The Welcome Inn was built by John Beto, a pioneer settler, in 1874, in the days of toll gates and plank roads. He started out his business with a saloon, for one must remember that those were pre-prohibition days. Later he added groceries and had delivery routes among his former customers. Still later a hall was annexed and this hall was the scene of many dances and balls in the gay old days, while in recent years it was used chiefly for meetings. The Beto family continued in business there 47 years when the place which had become known all over the country as "Beto's Corner" became the Welcome Inn, and the place was rented out for soft drink parlor and restaurant. There have been several changes in the business since that time. The first proprietor was Conrad Stoecker, who disposed of his business to Messrs. Blase and Winkelhoefer who in turn sold out to Bob Lotz and Tony Senekowich the last proprietor.

OBSERVER'S NOTES

They held a whale of a meeting, Out-goers, incomers all treating Each other to taffy, That made each one feel daffy Over their unseating and seating. Right here—Old Observer, Though not a time server, Sends to each, Hearty Hail, And Good Greeting!

Wasn't that real nice, all those pretty speeches, throwing bouquets and burying hatchets, smoking peace pipes and such, at the council meeting this week. It just most makes us wish they could all be mayors and board members, and it also gives large encouragement to those yet in the ranks and to the "also rans."

Told you all along our town wasn't going to the bow-wow no matter which party won, for are we not a government "of the people, for the people, by the people?" Here's hoping that Monday night's meeting was an index to the spirit of unity and harmony that shall prevail in all measures for the good of all Arlington Heights in the future.

Reading the account of that creditable meeting one could not help but question why our Arlington Heights furnish a presidential candidate for the next campaign? If we are half as capable and willing to serve as that peace conference would indicate I'm sure we should be unselfish enough to offer our government the benefit of our amazing leadership material. Non-sense aside, our committee men did carry off that rather trying ordeal in a creditable, admirable manner for which we should all congratulate them—the out-going and incoming.

Had a lesson this week in the result of our neglect to live up to "The City of Good Neighbors" boast. A young woman who has lived in our community five years in a Foundry road, a bright, intelligent woman who received her high school training at the Karl Schenz, the peer of any our girls, has found few evidences of our good neighborliness. Her husband was a Captain of a seagoing ship before the war, enlisted and served overseas, and has since living in Arlington Heights, worked as carpenter in the city. Last fall in falling from a scaffold, he severely injured one foot and ankle and though scarce able, returned to work this week. Now we are all going to become more neighborly with Mr. and Mrs. Albin Wieberg.

Speaking about our native animals, do you know what a little some, pretty creature is our native rabbit? The soft gray of their fur blends so completely into the landscape, you have to look a second time before you are sure you really see him. One sat out near the clumps of shrubbery in the fading light one evening last week, and when I talked to him he adjusted his dainty sensitive ears, first one then the other and never moved to go. This morning on the road near the garden sat a poor maimed creature. I feel sure is the same rabbit, evidently shot by some cruel gunner who shoots, just for the sport of torture.

O, yes I know roasted rabbit forms a toothsome dish, but did you ever hear the wild appealing shriek of a hunted rabbit? Ben Ames Williams told all about it in his "Silver Forest." I heard one cry like that once, some boys had chased him to his lair under our porch platform. They asked if they might lift the platform and get him. Alas, I who had sheltered and fought for him all winter, having a soft heart for boys as well as bunnies, assented, and when they had him completely at bay, came that hopeless appealing shriek! I'll never forget it, and I'll never consent to the capture of another defenseless creature like that, not even to please the boys.

Now about boys, one dislikes calling parents attention to the misdemeanors of their children. It should not be necessary to do so, but when one's property is invaded and too often damaged by the trail of trespassing children one feels compelled to warn, or rather to remind parents that they are not only morally responsible, but they are financially responsible, and must make good all property molested or damaged by their minor children.

Within the week just past, boys, not little boys went into a property where there was a new house unfinished and a supply of sand to be used in finishing. This sand these lads stamped into the heap, kicked it about, scattering it in a wasteful manner. Should you parents of these boys, like to have such a thing done to you? Another boy who runs over other people's property, with a slingshot, using it on our song birds, broke a glass in a rather expensive window. Now what would you do about this if it had been your window? I said it was expensive, not so for people of large means, but, the owner of that window is not in that favored class. Parents, have a care over your children! It is your job.

This week we learn that the body of Mrs. Mattie Day was brought to the Arlington cemetery for interment. She was the sister of Mr. Alfred Page, and Miss Nellie Page, old residents of Arlington Heights. Mrs. Day died in the Methodist's old people's home. Her life has not been along a primrose pathway. In deed she has been often alone and far from happy circumstances. Since the removal of her brother's family and the death of her sister, Miss Nellie Page, she has not been so often in Arlington Heights.

It is interesting to note the decline of so many of the older families. Mrs. Day's father, F. W. Page, came to Elk Grove in 1834 or 6. He took up 1,000 acres of land was a steward in the M. E. church, postmaster eight years and Justice of the Peace. His father John Page, Mrs. Day's grandfather served two terms in the U. S. Senate and was elected Governor of New Hampshire in 1838, and is recorded to have been a man of much strength of character. Those who knew the grandsons did not find him like among them. Mrs. Mattie Day was a gentle, lovable woman, who had staunch friends here in the old day and so they are brought to the old home town for the bodies final resting place.

As I write the date today, I am reminded that Memorial Day is not far away. Other towns in our community circle have already made preliminary arrangements for the proper observance of the day, and I'm sure our town will be alive to the duty of that sacred observance. One thing it is sad to note the failure of some of our favorite blossoms, to decorate the grave of the soldiers. Here where we had such a variety of all varieties of flowers, there is not one out, down to a single bud. Perhaps other flowers will make up for this loss.

How glad we all are for a cessation of the rains that were increasing the flood, sweeping so many homes to destruction. We have had but one light rain since May came in and we do hope the terrible rush of waters will soon be stayed. When I read of the lavish expenditure of money, for banquets, flower festivals and parades, I only wish that waste of funds could be sent to relieve the terrible suffering of so many homeless ones. It is alright to use money in public display in times of comfort and plenty but when so many so near us in such terrible suffering it seems almost a sin.

Deep calleth unto deep, Far down long lines of distance, They burst bonds of resistance As wildly on they sweep The floods still madly pouring The wraiths of waters roaring Still gathering force, on sweeping Unheeding human weeping Deep answereth unto deep, O, who can stay commotion, In that wild furious ocean Where the mad waters heap? Deep calleth unto deep Where black floods onward sweep. God pity the storm torn, Hungry, homeless, forlorn, He who holds within his palm The sullen deep, can calm Where deep calleth unto deep.

There are those who believe if our president would call upon the government for a needed and adequate appropriation for the flood sufferers, help could reach them much sooner, than to wait for the slow process of getting it by contributions. At any rate I trust the wise and helpful thing will be done right speedily.

It was gratifying to have Mayor Flentie say "let bygones be bygones." It is so often we wound and hurt each other needlessly and sometimes we are too late with our relenting. Of course in time of campaign, nobody lays up bitterness. Too often in everyday life we

The fees obtained from this license build our highways. A gasoline tax would mean that in addition to providing the paved highways the motorist would have to pay again for every mile that his car traveled over these highways. To impose a gasoline tax in addition to the state license fee is similar in effect to taxing the general public schools, parks, and libraries, and then assessing every individual for each visit made to these institutions; another example: it would be like assessing the public for general police protection and then charging a certain rate for every step a police officer took in passing by the citizen's home or place of business."

Mother and Daughter Banquet Fine Success

The annual Mother and Daughter banquet Wednesday, May 14, sponsored by the Mothers club of the Methodist church was a splendid occasion in every way. The wholesome and tasty dinner was interspersed with pep songs and rounds. Mrs. Ofelein being at the piano, and the dinner hour was characterized by friendliness and good cheer.

Mrs. Fred Ehret, president of the club welcomed the mothers and daughters and told of the object of these meetings as celebrated thru out the country after which she introduced the toastmistress, Mrs. Geo. Peterson. The aim of the club was presented in a terse and well defined way by Mrs. E. D. Whitmore and was followed by a few words of happy greetings by Mrs. W. B. Waltaire, our former pastor's wife and one of the founders of the club. A beautiful mother song was then rendered by Mrs. Alden accompanied by Mrs. Moodie at the piano. The toastmistress then introduced Mrs. Fetherston of the Elizabeth McCormick Memorial her subject being "The Community—That's You." Mrs. Fetherston's pleasing manner captivated all and her talk was listened to with care and interest.

In closing, pledges were read by both the mothers and daughters pledging a closer comradeship and nobler ideals of life through the coming year.

Tri-Sigmas Plan to Study Other Churches

Looking forward to the time when the First Methodist Church of Arlington Heights will occupy its new and enlarged building, the Tri-Sigma members have taken it upon themselves to find out how other churches attract evening audiences.

At the evening Tri-Sigma meeting two weeks ago, the subject was brought up and at the meeting last Sunday it was voted that the society should spend much of its time for the next few weeks visiting other churches that are noted for their large attendance.

Rev. Allan Billman has secured a list of some churches and the Tri-Sigmas are working out a list of things to be looked for. It is expected that certain ones will be assigned to make the report on each church, and others will make general observations. The executive committee was charged with the task of working out the details of these studies.

It is expected that the Tri-Sigmas will have some definite suggestions to make to the church by next fall that will make the new building of the greatest possible use in Arlington Heights.

The Tri-Sigmas have championed the idea that the church should endeavor to serve others besides its own members. That was the beginning of the Community House. With the new facilities offered by the building, much service work can be carried on.

The matter of the Mississippi flood relief was brought up by Stewart Alden, president, and it was voted that the president should appoint a committee to receive gifts of those who wish to contribute. The society voted $100 to be paid to the church treasurer immediately toward the Tri-Sigma pledge for the building fund.

It was also voted that the executive committee should plan a county fair to be given in the church basement in the near future.

ST. PETER'S LUTHERAN CHURCH

Holy communion will be celebrated Sunday morning in the German language. The confessional service will begin at 9:30 and the regular services with communion promptly at 10 o'clock. Registration for communion Friday.

Tuesday evening the Dorcas aid met for the first time with the new associate pastor, Rev. H. Fricke. The pastor spoke a few words as an encouragement to continue the good work in the service of the church. $500 was voted for the unfortunate flood sufferers.

The infant daughter, Lois Elaine, of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Knaack was received into the church by the sacrament of holy baptism on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Chas. Klehm, Mrs. Sophia Kirchoff and Mrs. Wm. Knaack served as sponsors.

Mr. Wm. Meyer is at present in a hospital in the city for a gangrene operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tuegel who resided with us for about seven years have moved to Washington township, Ill.

Rev. Fricke takes this means of addressing a cordial invitation to attend the English services to all who have no regular church home. We want in particular to extend a hearty welcome to all strangers in our midst. As for our preaching, it is the old, yet ever new gospel of Jesus Christ as revealed in the Bible. For weak, struggling humans, tossed about by doubt and fear, the good news of salvation must be heavenly music. Faith in Christ, the Son of God and the Saviour of the world, is the only sure foundation to build the structure of life upon. Then when the storms come and the waves dash high, such a faith will stand firm as a rock. Therefore seek the Lord while yet he may be found and behold now is the acceptable time, now is the day of grace. Harden not your hearts, but hear and believe.

Pension Fund for Retired Ministers Presby. Church

Present campaigns by the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., in fourteen states from Illinois to California have added $2,051,458 to the fund it is seeking to provide pensions for its old and disabled ministers. It was announced today at general campaign headquarters here.

This brings the national total for the fund to $11,200,000 and the goal is $15,000,000. In addition, it was announced that a campaign in the east to have the wealthy members of the church "double or better" their previous pledges had brought promise of at least $1,500,000 additional there, conditional upon a majority of the western districts reaching their quotas.

In the west, California leads the states thus far with $452,000, Illinois is second with $387,746 and Missouri third with $274,277. Los Angeles leads the Presbyteries with $313,000, Chicago is second with $220,394. St. Louis third with $135,375 and Minneapolis fourth with $117,874. Chicago, however, has made but one report against two for each of the others.

A group of nationally known swimming coaches and life saving experts, whose reputation and ability will probably never be excelled at a similar meeting, will form the nucleus of the teaching staff of the Chicago Red Cross Life Saving Institute to be held June 16-26 at Lake Lawn, Lake Delavan, Wis.

Normal courses offered include instruction in life saving, coaching, and training for speed swimming, water games, pageants, canoe craft boatmanship, and general waterfront protection. Besides giving the waterfront leader an all round training the courses are designed to prepare the student for the position of examiner of life saving candidates.

Golf, tennis, baseball, boating, dancing, and driving, are all included as next-door diversions.

Life guards recreation workers, camp counselors, Boy and Girl Scout executives, physical training leaders, and water safety enthusiasts, are being especially invited to attend the institute to train for summer camp or recreation work. Since the student body is limited, it is suggested that those wishing to attend the institute register at an early date with the American Red Cross, 616 South Michigan avenue, Chicago.

Honeymoon Home To Have Frigidaire

In planning the kitchen at the Cook County Herald's Honeymoon Home much thought is given to arranging kitchen equipment by Geo. L. Parker and Son, who are building the home. Convenient working space for the preparing of foods to be cooked is the first thought as well as storage space for unequipped foods.

Frigidaire lends itself admirably to the modern kitchen doing away with the old ice box. Mr. Otto Landmeier has consented to install the Frigidaire. The new metal cabinet Frigidaire with their spotlessly white sides and bright shining metal trim bring a measure of convenience to the modern kitchen never before known.

Four Frigidaire a minute are now being turned out in the plants of Frigidaire Corporation at Dayton, Ohio, according to information received by Otto Landmeier, local dealer. This is a production of 2,000 units a day, which taxes the capacity of the factories, recently enlarged through a $20,000,000 expansion program.

It has been estimated by Alfred P. Sloan, president of General Motors that four out of every five electric refrigerators now being installed are Frigidaires, said Mr. Landmeier. "This subsidiary now ranks second in the General Motors group in unit sales, an illustration of the overwhelming acceptance which has been accorded electric refrigeration by housewives of America."

Carrying out its policy of larger sales at lower prices, Frigidaire recently announced a new household model, selling at the lowest price in the history of the business, and designed to appeal to hundreds of thousands who have been awaiting a Frigidaire of standard quality, selling at a popular price.

"The amazing growth of Frigidaire sales, which are reaching twice their 1926 volume, reflects the convenience and dependability of Frigidaire and its desirability from a health standpoint."

"Other recent additions to the line which include electric water coolers and a heavy duty compressor for use in commercial installations, have extended the benefits of Frigidaire to wider fields, which in the past have been primarily dependent upon outside ice supply."

Wishes Luck to New Village Board As He Leaves for Germany

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gielow of Palatine will leave Sunday for Europe. They expect to sail on the S. S. Columbus from New York on May 17. They will stop at Washington en route east. They will land at Bremen, from which place they will go to Berlin. Switzerland will be the next country visited. They will not be in any particular hurry to return and Holland and England will also be included in their itinerary. No date for their return home has been set. Mr. Gielow left Germany 32 years ago and this is his first visit there since that time. He is combining business with pleasure in this trip and is looking forward to meeting many of his former friends.

Mr. Gielow, leaving Palatine says that he wishes the new board all kinds of luck and he expects that during his absence they will have made good on all their promises and upon his return, Palatine will be prospering as never before in its history.

Bringing City Improvements To The Farms

The cast stone garden furniture manufactured by this same company is finding a ready sale and many lawns are being made doubly attractive by the installation of an urn, a bird bath, bench or other pieces of this weather proof furniture.

Look! Organizations Look!

A chance for an organization to secure Red Arrow Vouchers without any expense whatever. Now this is our own "do-in's". The editor has not suggested this to us and H. C. Paddock & Sons are not giving us one cent for doing it. We have aselfish object in view, however, and it is simply this:

H. C. Paddock & Sons are giving us a good paper, as good and better than most papers in cities of this size. They could not live on the receipts of the subscription list alone, IF IT WAS ALL PURE PROFIT. They must make this profit on the advertising, job work, etc., and this is where our selfish object comes in; we advertise and spend money to do so; if the subscription list can be increased, it will make our advertising and the advertising of each patron of the Herald more effective than it is now.

A good many people who do not now take the Herald should do so for community patriotic reasons alone, but all may rest assured value received is given for each $2.25 spent for a year's subscription to the Herald. Our proposition simply gives each and every Organization in our community an opportunity to benefit in a circulation campaign in the following manner:

For each new subscription that any member of an organization secures to the Cook County Herald for one year, we will give a $25.00 Red Arrow Voucher.

These subscriptions must be paid in advance and we have arranged with H. C. Paddock & Sons to O. K. each new subscription and when you present this O. K. to us, we willhand to you the $25.00 voucher which you may give to your favorite Organization. This offer is good until the end of the Red Arrow Campaign.

To the Organizations whose members secure the most yearly subscriptions we shall give the following bonus:

1st. $500.00 Red Arrow Voucher
2nd. $250.00 Red Arrow Voucher
3rd. $125.00 Red Arrow Voucher

Barrington School Boy Loses Life When Held Fast in Mud of Lake

Bennie Shotts, a pupil of the 5th grade of the Barrington school lost his life in Hawthorne Lake near Barrington last week, when he fell out of a boat in about four feet of water.

The finding of the Shott's boy's body terminated a 12 hour search participated in by a score of farmers and neighbors, who combed the surrounding country side in an effort to find the boy.

The condition of the body showed the boy had made a hard fight for life. His clenched hands contained tufts of weeds and mud and he had nearly bitten through his lips in his exertions to muster strength to extricate himself from the bottom. He apparently had been seized with cramps. The water, at the point he was found, was only about four feet deep while Bennie was at least five feet in height and ordinarily would have been able to release himself. It was conjectured at the inquest that upon arriving at the lake he had gone out in the boat, lost his balance while standing and plunged into the water.

By appearances our little town is still booming. Another residence is going to be built in the near future. Contracts are out for same.

Henry Salze took a trip to Danville to bring back his sisters, who were visiting friends and relatives there. They saw some of the work of the tornado and say it certainly was something awful.

Aug. Kelm, painter and decorator from Arlington Heights paid a visit to our town last Thursday.
L. Schoenbeck is putting in all modern improvements in his house on Easy street.
F. W. Botteman and force are busy hauling gravel and scraping out the roads in good condition again which look pretty bad in some places.

MT. PROSPECT

Mr. Fred Meier of Arlington Heights a brother of Mr. George Meier and Mrs. L. C. Busse died very suddenly on Sunday May 8. Mr. Meier had apparently been in moderately good health and had attended church in the morning. He was stricken about noon and died within an hour. The funeral was held on Wednesday, May 11, from the Lutheran church of Arlington Heights. A large representation from Mt. Prospect attended the funeral services.

Dr. Koester is the happy hostess of her parents who are visiting with her having come from Hanover, Germany, to see how their daughter was doing in Mt. Prospect. Dr. Koester's parents and sister will be in our midst for several weeks, we are pleased to have them but express regret that the Doctor's mother is not in the best of health, having contracted pleurisy while making the trip.

The Chief of Police has issued instructions that owners of all dogs in the village must secure license for their dogs at once as they were due May 1. Better see chief Muso at once so he can issue a license to you for your pet.

Tuesday May 17, is the day that has been set for clean up day. The chief asks that our citizens put their rubbish out early and also wants to remind everyone that large and bulky materials will not be taken on these pickups. Be sure you put your rubbish in baskets or some receptacle, do your share and help keep our village clean. Read this item again so you will have it right.

Monday's storm played a little havoc with a garage two or three signs a tree and the roof of the H. H. Chester warehouse but this was the extent of the damage done in our village. We can consider ourselves very fortunate as a little east of us considerable damage was done. Although we were without light and power for a while, everything was running smooth again Tuesday a. m.

The new Main street business building being erected by William Busse Jr., is rapidly nearing completion. The masons have reached the required height and the carpenters are at work putting on roof rafters and furrings.

The William Busse & Sons business block is making good headway and it will not be long before everything will be ready to go.

Fred Meeske reports his seed business as excellent and the quality of seeds they receive. Our various other merchants report business as normal and the prospects for further prosperity are bright as ever.

Judging from the attitude of various property owners present at the three meetings held by our board of local improvements last week, our paving projects will be under way very shortly and from the report of Real Estate operators these projects will be a wonderful thing for our village and will bring many more desirable buildings to us.

The general health conditions in our village are in first class shape and everybody seems to be happy about it.

The Lonnquist Co., have purchased an additional 182 acres in our village. This increases their holdings considerable and shows that this progressive Real Estate firm has faith in Mt. Prospect. The Herman Moehling and C. Moehling farms are the two farms. Mr. Lonnquist purchased. This gives them frontage on both sides of Central road. Mr. Lonnquist promises developments on these additional properties.

Say it with price, is the slogan for Busse's Dry Goods Store. This store is a member of the National Federated Retail Stores, an organization of Dry Goods Stores, who buy collectively, share advertising expenses and yet retain their individuality, pooling their every effort to give bargains to the public. The second sale is now being held.

Mr. George L. Busse is serving on the Federal Grand Jury in Judge Carpenters Court.

Mrs. G. W. Wohlburg and her committee who had charge of the bundle day on Thursday May 5th, wish to thank the many contributors to this worthy cause. Some sixty-two bundles were received and turned over to the Salvation Army headquarters for distribution in the flooded areas. As this was the first relief call made by the Woman's club the officers and committee greatly appreciate the response and cooperation. The committee also wishes to thank Mr. J. Pohlman, Mr. Parke, Mr. Fred Busse and Mr. Peterson for their kind assistance.

And again we say hello this time to Mr. Chas. J. Rateike and family who moved into their new home on Maple street last week, welcome to Mt. Prospect.

Mr. Chas. Lipp of Wille street is still on the sick list. Mr. Lipp has not been well for some time and we hear that he is beginning to improve a little. Glad to hear same and hope that he will gain a little in strength and vigor each day.

The directors of school district 57 held a meeting at the school house on Monday evening, May 9, for the purpose of opening the bids on the $25,000. bonds for new school house. The highest bidder was Mr. Henry Mensching of Mt. Prospect whose offer was 4% above par. We feel sure that it will be an added bit of pride for all to know that one of Mount Prospect's own sons was the buyer of the school house.

Business men and women of Wheeling were there in force; Mr. and Mrs. Wernecke of the Chicago house. Mr. and Mrs. Behm-Uptadel of the Riverside hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Meierhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Winkelhoefer who operate a lunch room and ice cream parlor.

Among the Theatres

"Tenth Avenue" From New York

New York is exploiting its thoroughfares this season. Upon the heels of "Broadway" comes "Tenth Avenue," and of all New York's interesting streets or alleys, none can compare with that crooked, little street in that devilish portion of the city known as "Hell's Kitchen." "Tenth Avenue" is all that its authors intended and is played for all it is worth at the Adelphi theatre, Chicago, by Edna Hibbard, famous as the wise-cracking gold-digger of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes"; William Boyd, who will always be remembered as the hard-boiled Sergeant Quirt of "What Price Glory"; and by Louis Calhern the silken villain of "Cobra"; supported by a platinum cast which includes Roy Gordon, Gregory Ratoff, John Butler, Harold Wolf and J. A. Curtis. The play is a melodrama of New York's underworld, by John McGowan and Lloyd Griscom, and the authors have been successful in making each and every character a finely pointed type of the half-world, where a gat and its use are part of every young boy's training. The plot is hatched in Lila Mason's boarding house, where reside a bootlegger, a gambler, a gunman, a pickpocket and a general bad boy, under the chaperonage of a girl who is trying her best to keep them straight. The gunman is madly in love with her, the gambler is heartily her worshiper, and although she loves the gambler, she has obeyed her maternal instinct, instead of her passion.

Northbrook Girl Scouts

The Girl Scouts are making a drive for funds to cover the next three years operating expenses.

A Girl Scout only pays a fee of fifty cents a year. This fee is held at so low a figure to enable all girls to be scouts and to avail themselves of the training this organization affords.

However, it actually costs $4.00 additional a year to give each girl this opportunity. This $4.00 is used in defraying the running expenses of camps, offices, and such expenses as printing etc.

This additional money must come from outside sources and is obtained by soliciting.

Towns having girl scout troops are asked to do their part. Northbrook has a troop numbering 20, and a Brownie troop numbering 15. Each scout pays fifty cents a year and each Brownie one penny a meeting, approximately 25 cents a year.

In Northbrook rather than make a house to house canvass we are appealing to its organizations for a small contribution because we feel that the girl scout troops of Northbrook is of Civic importance.

We ask you to present this to the Northbrook organizations for their kind consideration.

Niles township has more florists and the largest hot houses for flowers than any other territory the same size in the world. The hail storm May 9, 1927, did more damage to glass roofs than any other time in history. There wasn't enough glass in Illinois to replace all the broken lights. Those who rushed in their orders quick got a partial supply others had to wait for glass to come from distant factories. Wm. F. Duntzman of Bensenville estimates his loss at $5,000. We were told that Stielows of Niles Center damage is $6,000 and Dickinson Bros., nearly $30,000. It will take a long time to square the loss from profits.

Robert Kreegier Wins Pony

The happiest boy in Niles Center at 4:45 p. m. Saturday was Robert Kreegier, who was at that time announced winner in the contest arranged by some Niles Center Merchants who offered a Shetland Pony with riding equipment as a prize. Vote coupons were given out by merchants for every purchase over a given amount and count was made Saturday. Mr. Wm. Galitz placed a room in the bank at the disposal of the count and also helped check up totals on adding machines. Mr. Paul Even was in charge of ballot boxes and tally sheets from the business houses that issued votes. The count was made by five members of the Niles Center Woman's club: Mesdames Bertha Galitz, Louise Klehm and Kunigunde Brown and Misses Mae Stielow and Alma Klehm. Figures for six highest in vote tally were:

Robert Kreegier, 20,463,450.
Jacob Barg, Jr., 16,397,150.
George E. Meyer, 4,135,500.
Peter Blameuser, 3,064,850.
Warren Hoffman, 2,888,250.
Louis Maier, 1,248,900.

EAST MAINE

Martin Geweke has a new Ford sedan, one of the green touring cars.

Richard Wilke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilke, celebrated his 9th birthday anniversary May 7 with the aid of 20 of his little school friends. Various games were played and suitable prizes awarded the little tots all of whom enjoyed the party very much.

English services at St. Matthews Lutheran church Sunday, May 15, at 10 a. m. daylight saving time. At a special meeting of the congregation, it was decided that the time for starting services be changed to the daylight saving time in order to facilitate affairs in the community by having one time.

A birthday party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pries, May 7 in honor of their daughter, Elsie. Quite a large crowd of young folks were present. Bunco and other amusements followed by refreshments was the routine of the evening's pleasures.

The bunco party given by St. Matthews Ladies' Aid last week was well attended, the crowd Saturday night outnumbered the crowd of lively buncoers the previous night. Prizes awarded were too numerous to mention. The luncheon set, centerpiece and quilt which were raffled off were won by Miss Lillian Witt of DesPlaines, Mrs. Wm. Wilhelm of Niles and Mr. O. Wunsch of Park Ridge respectively.

Another birthday party scheduled for Sunday night, May 8, was at the Julius Lainer home where Mr. Lainer was the honored host. More than 100 guests had been invited and partook of the jollities provided and all had a wonderful time.

When Milwaukee avenue was paved more than a decade ago, the 18 foot pavement which was laid was practical and suitable in every way. But since that time the increasing heavy traffic caused the width of the street to be found inadequate. Surveyors have been at work along Milwaukee Ave. where plans have been laid to increase the concrete to 40 foot width. This work is to be done the coming season.

In response to our president's call for millions of dollars to help the flood stricken residents of the southern Mississippi valley district the members of St. Matthews congregation are willing to do their share to help the sufferers, and all are kindly asked to send or bring their contributions to Rev. J. Toepe or either of the church trustees sometime before May 22. Of course no one is compelled to contribute, but if each does his share the burden will be lightened accordingly and much needed aid will be sent to the flood victims. It is true that considerable damage was wrought by the severe storms which swept through this part of the country Monday, but stop to compare the conditions of the flood swept south with the storm swept territories here and you will find that it is much easier to have to replace broken windows or to replant crops which have been destroyed, rather than to lose one's entire property in a raging flood. And having made that comparison, send in your contribution.

In a thrilling game, the baseball team from Niles Center met defeat at the hands of East Maine nine Sunday afternoon with a 2 to 1 score. This game looked as if it were good for at least 10 innings for neither side scored until the eighth inning when Siegel of Niles Center came home on a triple by Nelsen. Then in East Maine's half of the eighth there was one strikeout and two putouts. In the first of the ninth Niles Center's catcher collided with a pitched ball and walked to first base. However, three strikeouts followed his walk and then with one down, Ray Burmeister scored their first run tying the score and the crowd went wild. Then Elmer Rohde came home on Teddie's hit and the game was over. A splendid crowd were out to cheer their respective teams. There were 14 strikeouts by Miller and 7 by Niles Center's pitcher. Another good game is promised for next Sunday when Park Ridge comes to East Maine.

E. Lester Stanton, pastor.

Sunday morning at the worship service, we will observe Boy Sunday, the culmination of Boy Week which is observed through America. There will be an unveiling of a magnificent copy of Hoffman's Boy Jesus, in a rich dark frame, to match the other picture of the Head of Jesus by the same artist, which already hangs in the church. It is planned to have the Scouts who belong to the church present in uniform, and assist in the unveiling. The sermon will be appropriate to the occasion.

The double mixed quartette which sang the Mother's Day anthem last Sunday was much complimented, especially Mrs. Stanton who had the solo part. It was not known that Gladys Wallbaum was nipping at alto and Mrs. Hutchings was doing the same at the piano, but we just had to have that selection.

The Adult choir will meet next week, May 18, at the home of F. A. Rugen at 8 p. m.

The ten girls who are practicing for a play to be given, are doing good work under the leadership of Mrs. Fred A. Rugen. We also have other feasts in store for you, the dates to be announced later.

We are still planning to fix up the court between the church and the parsonage.
